The Impact of International Trade on Wages (National Bureau of Economic Research Conference Report)

The ending just totally took all the joy out of me and I really have to wonder if I would have read the book knowing the end.

Where A Beautiful Journey Begins

This work, which purports to relate the betrayal of Spain by Roderick to the invading Moors, is essentially a historical novel with purely imaginary figures mingling with those of Roderick himself, Count Julian, La Cava, and Orpas, the false Archbishop of Seville.
