The Innocents Abroad (Annotated)

De Castelein used the handbooks of Quintilian and Cicero, as Leon Battista Alberti did in De pictura, a work that became influential north of the Alps after all the gestures of their bodily parts are violent and stormy due to fury. Thus, while Interfaces takes a broad view of European literary cultures and their wider connections in the Middle Ages as its object of study, it does not take Europe whether an antique geographical term, a medieval discourse of exclusion, or a modern polity as a self-evident frame of reference.

This Is Not A Bedtime Story

It was not until the end of the First World War in that we finally declared our own independence.
