The more I study the Andean Paqos and Shaman from indigenous cultures, the more I understand that although the work I do involves shamanistic journeying, plant spirit medicine and mystical techniques from the Q'ero, this does not make me a traditional shaman, any more than someone who plants a garden could call themselves a farmer. These people that he's describing are smelly little perverts- as is the author- for trying to make this into a comedy-or whatever the hell he's trying to do Or Critical Journal Volume 128.
