The Bottom Line: Navigating Your 20s By Gods Word

Ecstasy here understood as spontaneity, delirium of sheer joy; living in the here and now, laughing and crying, if one feels like it; thinking and saying the impossible. This series of connections has a long lineage: the first presentation of a metapicture, the curtain of Parrhasios, certainly took place in a theatre, which is easy to forget because the translations of the anecdote nearly always obscure the fact that the competition between the artists took place in a theatre, a place of public competition, or that Parrhasios had painted a theatre curtain.
